Ex Parte Quayle Action:

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:
 - i. In line 9 of page 2, "network 13" should be replaced with - -network 14- -.
 - ii. The title of the invention does not accurately describe the invention. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. An example of such a title would be "Automatic Call Center Agent Selection for Diverse Communication Networks."
2. Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Reason for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest method for connecting a call to one of a plurality of agents in a call center that is connected to disparate telecommunication networks, and the corresponding system, where the method comprises the steps of receiving a query from one of a plurality of telecommunications networks regarding whether at least one agent, among a plurality of agents, is available; responding to the query with the availability of any available agents; and connecting the call to the agent determined on the basis of availability of the agent,
